

CULTURAL EVENT SPONSORSHIP APPLICATION

TS'ELXWÉYEQW TRIBE MANAGEMENT LIMITED (TTML) CULTURAL EVENT SPONSORSHIP

Sponsorship is intended to support cultural events and community events such as: registration fees for groups attending elder or youth gatherings, canoe journeys and cultural camps. Preference may be given to Cultural Events held within Ts'elxwéyeqw Tribe Territory. Sponsorship can also be used for travel costs for groups to attend cultural events.

SPONSORSHIP DETAILS

- ◆ Sponsorship applications should be submitted to TTML by January or June of each year. If the Cultural Event Sponsorship fund maximum has been reached by January, further applications will not be accepted until June
- ◆ Groups must be 80% Ts'elxwéyeqw Tribe Members, names and communities must be listed on applications, proof of membership or address may be required
- ◆ Complete the Cultural Event Sponsorship application
- ◆ Maximum sponsorship is up to $300 for individuals, $1,000 per group and maximum event sponsorship to be determined by the board
- ◆ Registration fees will be paid directly to the event or proof of paid registration fees are required
- ◆ Breakdown of other funding sources may be required
- ◆ List of expenses required if sponsorship is being used for travel and accommodation costs to attend a Cultural Event
- ◆ TTML reserves the right to request copies of expense receipts for travel expenses, not providing receipts requested may prevent further sponsorship from being approved in the future
- ◆ Event pictures and consent to post to our Facebook and website would be appreciated
- ◆ Preference may be given to those groups that have not received sponsorship from TTML within the last two (2) years
